

Umbrella Service

for Agencies

Introduction

Our umbrella service provides your agency with the reassurance you need that you and your client are protected.

Husp offers:

Umbrella company specialists

A team with over 20 years umbrella company experience

Fully compliant with all legislation and regulation

Cost effective for your contractor workforce

And we're independently accredited to provide you with peace of mind

Our umbrella service is fully FCSA accredited. This means you can have confidence that our payroll and employment processes are totally compliant with all HMRC regulations and employment legislation.

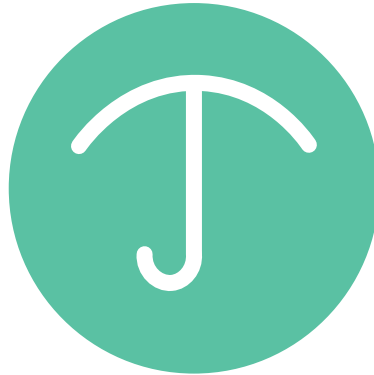

All elements of our service are audited annually so you can be completely confident in the quality of the service we provide to your contractor workforce.

Why Husp?

Unlike many companies offering an umbrella company option as an add on, we don't do anything else. We're completely focused on providing an umbrella company employment solution which you and your contractor workforce can rely on.

We know you want to make sure that the umbrella companies you work with provide the level of service you need, your clients expect and your contractors want. So, we work collaboratively with agencies to ensure that your (and your client's) expectations are met. We want you to be confident in recommending us as a quality service to the contractor workforce you engage.

Making a sound choice

What should you look for in an umbrella company?

Working with a large number of umbrella companies offers your contractors choice but gives you two key challenges.

1. The administrative burden of managing a large number of relationships and the risk of poor service.
2. Higher risk that the umbrella companies your contractors choose are not secure or compliant.

When you are choosing the umbrella companies you work with it's important to consider the impact that a poor umbrella company could have on your

Things to consider

The umbrella companies you work with reflect your business. You need to make sure they are financially stable, are offering a great service to your contractors and are fully compliant with all regulations and legislation:
